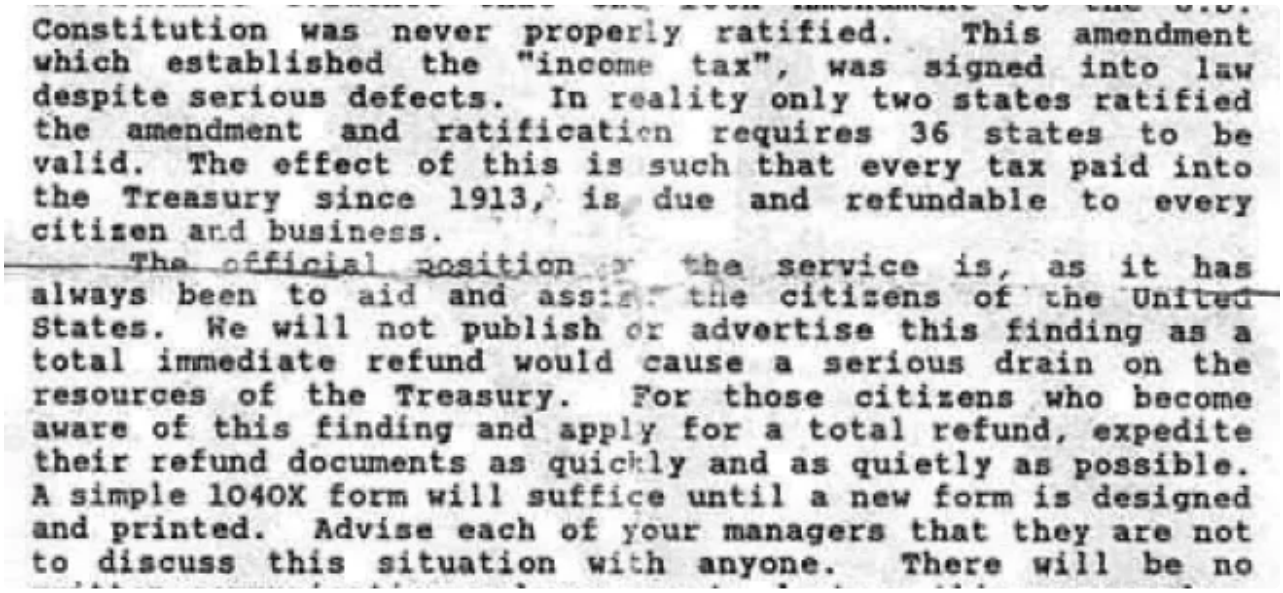
Is “ the 16th Amendment to the United States Constitution was never properly ratified” a frivolous argument?



Constitution was never properly ratified. This amendment which established the "income tax", was signed into law despite serious defects. In reality only two states ratified the amendment and ratification requires 36 states to be valid. The effect of this is such that every tax paid into the Treasury since 1913, is due and refundable to every citizen and business.

The official position of the service is, as it has always been to aid and assist the citizens of the United States. We will not publish or advertise this finding as a total immediate refund would cause a serious drain on the resources of the Treasury. For those citizens who become aware of this finding and apply for a total refund, expedite their refund documents as quickly and as quietly as possible. A simple 1040X form will suffice until a new form is designed and printed. Advise each of your managers that they are not to discuss this situation with anyone. There will be no

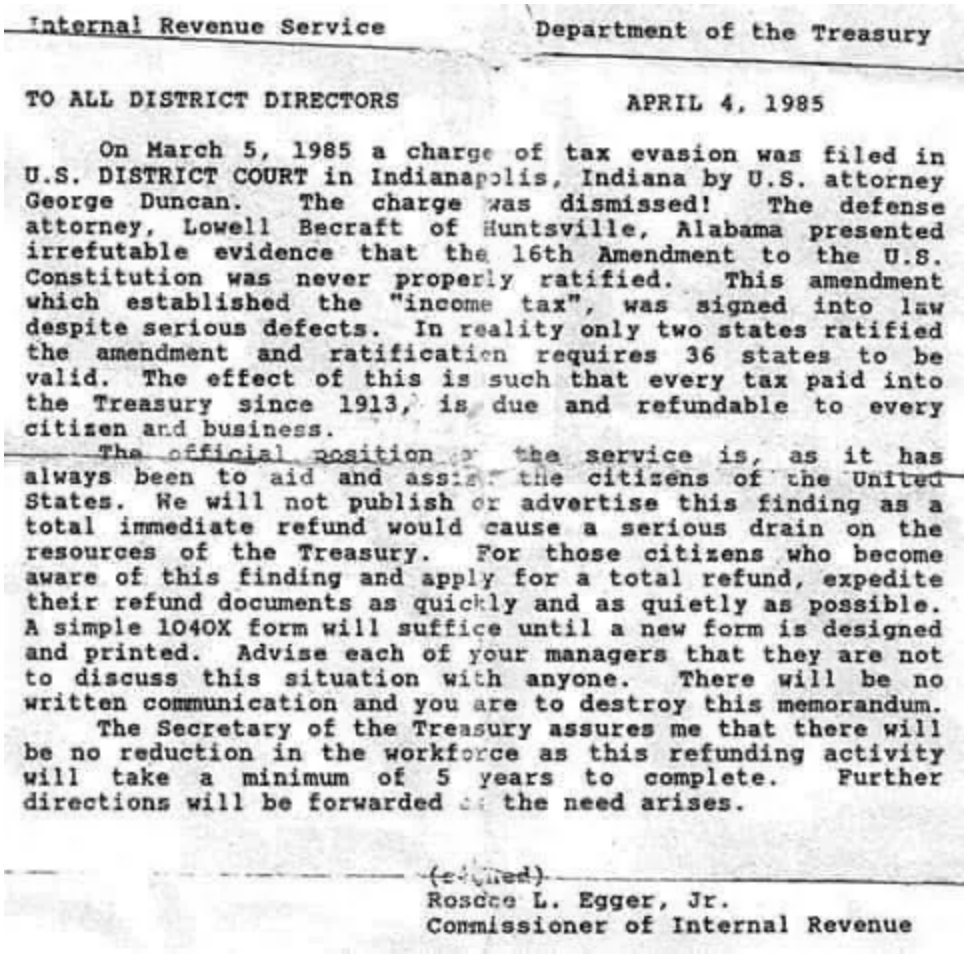
The courts have held, when it comes to taxation, that this is a frivolous argument. But, is it really? Or is there an agenda.

I saw this picture below and what it says is pretty alarming.



Internal Revenue Service Department of the Treasury

TO ALL DISTRICT DIRECTORS APRIL 4, 1985

On March 5, 1985 a charge of tax evasion was filed in U.S. DISTRICT COURT in Indianapolis, Indiana by U.S. attorney George Duncan. The charge was dismissed! The defense attorney, Lowell Becraft of Huntsville, Alabama presented irrefutable evidence that the 16th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was never properly ratified. This amendment which established the "income tax", was signed into law despite serious defects. In reality only two states ratified the amendment and ratification requires 36 states to be valid. The effect of this is such that every tax paid into the Treasury since 1913, is due and refundable to every citizen and business.

We will not publish or advertise this finding as a total immediate refund would cause a serious drain on the resources of the Treasury. For those citizens who become aware of this finding and apply for a total refund, expedite their refund documents as quickly and as quietly as possible. There will be no written communication and you are to destroy this memorandum.

The Secretary of the Treasury assures me that there will be no reduction in the workforce as this refunding activity will take a minimum of 5 years to complete. Further directions will be forwarded as the need arises.

Roscoe L. Egger, Jr.
Commissioner of Internal Revenue

I am not one to just believe something so I had to confirm it. So what I found was even more alarming. The Indiana Department of Revenue quoted this exact phrase in three different documents. The documents are as follows;

1. 1997 WL 241673 (Ill.Dept.Rev.)

Department of Revenue

State of Illinois Letter No. IT 97-0004-GIL January 7, 1997

1-state-of-illinois.pdf

2. 1997 WL 241690 (Ill.Dept.Rev.)

Department of Revenue

State of Illinois Letter No. IT 97-0005-GIL January 7, 1997

2-state-of-illinois.pdf

3. 1997 WL 863965 (Ill.Dept.Rev.)

Department of Revenue

State of Illinois Letter No. IT 97-0071-GIL August 6, 1997

3-state-of-illinois.pdf

They have known about this from the case at some point before March 5, 1995 to present. These three documents were from 1997, which puts it around 12 years after the case. But, they will not discuss this at all!

This is just for you to be informed. You make or on decisions as to what you believe. God bless.
